"Over the past year, we have made significant progress on our strategic objectives across four dimensions — shifting the composition of our portfolio into primarily first lien floating rate assets, reducing our concentrated positions, increasing our investment in the Logan JV, and exiting our non-income producing securities," said Chris Flynn, CEO. "We remain confident that the steps we are taking to reduce risk in our portfolio will result in a more diversified senior secured floating rate portfolio that is positioned to deliver more stable and predictable returns for our shareholders over the long term."

THL Credit's Board of Directors also voted to adjust the dividend to reflect the BDC's current earnings potential. In addition, the Advisor decided to waive additional incentive fees to the extent earned through the end of 2019, as well as to lower the base management fee to more closely align with what it believes is appropriate for a first lien floating rate portfolio.

THL Credit will also be implementing a new $15 million 10b5-1 stock repurchase plan and intends to repurchase stock at levels that are accretive to shareholders with proceeds from exits of additional control equity positions this year.

As of December 31, 2018, these transactions, coupled with changes in net unrealized depreciation on the portfolio during the quarter, bring the total fair value of THL Credit's investment portfolio to $493.7 million across 42 portfolio investments. THL Credit's investment portfolio at fair value was allocated 67 percent in first lien senior secured debt (including unitranche investments), 17 percent in the Logan JV, 5 percent in second lien debt, 1 percent in subordinated debt, and 10 percent in equity securities and warrants. The weighted average yield on debt and Logan JV investments made in the fourth quarter of 2018 was 9.4 percent. As of December 31, 2018, THL Credit had loans on non-accrual status with an aggregate amortized cost of $38.0 million and fair value of $18.1 million, or 7.0 percent and 3.7 percent of the portfolio's amortized cost and fair value, respectively. As of December 31, 2018, 96.5 percent of THL Credit's debt investments bore interest based at floating rates, which may be subject to interest rate floors, such as London Interbank offer rate, or LIBOR, or Canadian Dollar offer rate, or CDOR, and 3.5 percent of its debt investments bore interest at fixed rates.

This compares to the portfolio as of December 31, 2017, which had a fair value of $608.7 million across 47 portfolio investments allocated 67 percent in first lien senior secured debt (including unitranche investments), 11 percent in the Logan JV, 5 percent in second lien debt, 3 percent in subordinated debt, 2 percent in other income-producing securities and 12 percent in equity securities and warrants. The weighted average yield on new and follow-on investments made in the fourth quarter of 2017 was 8.5 percent. The weighted average yield of the debt and other income-producing securities in the investment portfolio, including the Logan JV, at their cost basis was 10.7 percent. As of December 31, 2017, THL Credit had loans on non-accrual status with an aggregate amortized cost of $56.3 million and fair value of $21.0 million, or 8.8 percent and 3.4 percent of the portfolio's amortized cost and fair value, respectively. As of December 31, 2017, 93 percent of its debt investments bore interest based at floating rates, which may be subject to interest rate floors, such as LIBOR, and 7 percent of its debt investments bore interest at fixed rates.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Investment income

Total investment income for the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017 was $15.8 million and $18.6 million, respectively, and consisted of $11.4 million and $13.3 million of interest income on debt securities (which included PIK interest of $0.7 million and $0.3 million and prepayment premiums of $0.2 million and $0.1 million, respectively), $3.4 million and $3.4 million of dividend income, $0.5 million and $1.1 million of interest income on other income-producing securities, and $0.5 million and $0.8 million of other income, including fees from THL Credit's managed vehicles, respectively.

The decrease in investment income compared to the prior period was primarily due to a contraction in the overall investment portfolio since Dec. 31, 2017, which led to lower interest income.

Total investment income for the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017 was $66.9 million and $78.8 million, respectively, and consisted of $49.7 million and $56.8 million of interest income on debt securities (which included PIK interest of $2.3 million and $1.7 million and prepayment premiums of $0.6 million and $0.1 million, respectively), $12.2 million and $13.5 million of dividend income, $2.8 million and $4.6 million of interest income on other income-producing securities and $2.2 million and $3.9 million of other income, including fees from THL Credit's managed vehicles, respectively.

The decrease in investment income from 2017 to 2018 was primarily due to a contraction in the overall investment portfolio since Dec. 31, 2017, which led to lower interest income. The decrease was also attributed to lower dividend income from certain equity investments and lower other income related to one-time amendment and structuring fees.

Expenses

Expenses for the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017 were $8.5 million and $9.9 million, respectively. For the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, base management fees were $2.1 million and $2.6 million, administrator and other expenses were $1.3 million and $1.5 million, and fees and expenses related to THL Credit's borrowings were $5.0 million and $5.7 million, respectively. In addition, for each of the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, THL Credit recorded an income tax provision related to its consolidated blocker corporations, excise and other taxes of $0.1 million and $0.1 million, respectively.

The decrease in operating expenses was due to a decrease in management fees as a result of portfolio contraction, lower interest and fees on our credit facility due to reduction in borrowings outstanding offset by a one-time cost of $0.9 million related to accelerated amortization of deferred financing costs and lower administrator expenses allocated from the Advisor.

Expenses for the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017 were $32.1 million and $39.1 million, respectively. For the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, base management fees were $9.0 million and $10.4 million, net incentive fees were ($0.0) million and $2.4 million, administrator and other expenses were $6.1 million and $7.4 million, and fees and expenses related to THL Credit's credit facility for the same periods were $16.7 million and $18.7 million, respectively. In addition, for the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, THL Credit recorded income tax provisions related to its consolidated blocker corporations, excise and other taxes of $0.3 million and $0.2 million, respectively.

The decrease in operating expenses from 2017 to 2018 was due primarily to lower interest and fees on our credit facility due to the reduction in borrowings outstanding, lower administrator expenses allocated from the Advisor, lower net incentive fees due to the effect of the waiver, and lower base management fees as a result of portfolio contraction.

Net investment income

Net investment income totaled $7.3 million and $8.7 million for the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, or $0.23 and $0.27 per share based upon 32,515,187 and 32,673,590 weighted average common shares outstanding, respectively.

Net investment income was lower due to a decrease in interest income on debt and income-producing securities as a result of contraction of the overall investment portfolio, which was partially offset by lower borrowing costs.

Net investment income totaled $34.8 million and $39.7 million for the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, or $1.07 and $1.21 per share based upon 32,633,663 and 32,797,233 weighted average common shares outstanding, respectively.

The decrease in net investment income from 2017 to 2018 is primarily attributable to a decrease in interest on debt and other income-producing investments due to portfolio contraction offset by lower borrowing costs, incentive and base management fees.

Net realized gains and losses on investments, net of income tax provision

For the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018, THL Credit recognized a net realized gain on portfolio investments of $6.2 million, primarily related to a net realized gain recognized on the exit of THL Credit's control investment in Tri-Starr Management Services, Inc. For the three months ended Dec. 31, 2017, THL Credit recognized a net realized gain on portfolio investments of $5.0 million, primarily related to a realized gain recognized on the exit of its equity investments in Thibaut, Inc.

For the year ended Dec. 31, 2018, THL Credit recognized a net realized loss of $32.4 million, primarily related to realized losses recognized in connection with the sale and restructuring of certain debt investments. For the year ended Dec. 31, 2017, THL Credit recognized a net realized loss of $17.3 million, primarily related to realized losses recognized in connection with the sale of certain debt investments.

For the year ended Dec. 31, 2018, THL Credit recorded no income tax provision on realized gains. For the year ended Dec. 31, 2017, THL Credit recorded an income tax provision on realized gains of $0.8 million related to the exit of an investment held in a blocker corporation.

Net change in unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on investments

For the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, THL Credit's investment portfolio had a net change in unrealized depreciation of $36.7 million and $32.2 million, respectively. For the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, THL Credit's investment portfolio had a net change in unrealized depreciation of $11.9 million and $31.6 million, respectively.

The net change in unrealized appreciation on our investments was primarily the result of the performance of certain portfolio investments, including certain control investments, partially offset by the reversal of prior period unrealized depreciation upon a realization of a controlled investment noted in the portfolio and investment activity section.

Benefit for taxes on unrealized gain on investments

For the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, THL Credit recognized an income tax benefit (provision) for taxes on unrealized gains of $0.1 million and ($0.1) million related to consolidated subsidiaries, respectively. For the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, the income tax (provision) benefit for taxes on unrealized gains on investments was ($0.3) million and $2.1 million, respectively.

The change in provision for tax on unrealized gains on investments relates primarily to changes to the unrealized appreciation (depreciation) of the investments held in these taxable consolidated subsidiaries, other temporary differences and a change in the prior year estimates received from certain portfolio companies.

Change in net assets resulting from operations

Change in net assets resulting from operations totaled ($23.1) million and ($18.5) million, or ($0.71) and ($0.56) per share based upon 32,515,187 and 32,673,590 weighted average common shares outstanding, for the three months ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Net decrease in net assets resulting from operations totaled ($10.6) million and ($7.9) million, or ($0.32) and ($0.24) per share based upon 32,633,663 and 32,797,233 weighted average common shares outstanding, for the years ended Dec. 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

The decrease in net assets resulting from operations for the respective periods is due primarily to net realized and unrealized losses in the portfolio.

FINANCIAL CONDITION, INCLUDING LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of December 31, 2018, THL Credit had cash of $6.9 million.

As of December 31, 2018, THL Credit had $219.3 million in outstanding borrowings, which was comprised of $107.7 million outstanding on the revolving credit facility and $111.6 million of notes payable outstanding. As of December 31, 2018, borrowings outstanding had a weighted average interest rate of 5.70 percent. Its financing activities used $16.9 million for net repayments on its credit facility, $35.4 million for distributions to stockholders, $2.5 million to repurchase common stock and $1.4 million for the payment of financing and offering costs.
